

Riesling GG (Grand Cru) Deidesheimer Grainhübel 2013

Taste Profile

Seductive and rich with notes of jasmine and ripe mango, pineapple and honey melon. Profound and elegant minerality with a long finish.

Pairs well with pork tenderloin and hearty, even slightly spicy dishes.

Style:

- Dry
- ABV: 12.5%
- RS: 7.5g/l
- Acidity: 7.9 g/l

Winemaker's Note:

- Hand harvested grapes
- Small yield
- 65 cases made.
- Organic production

Terroir

Grainhübel is one of the best vineyards in Deidesheim. It is a Grand Cru (Grosse Lage) classified vineyard with sandy loam and limestone, which is ideal for dense and complex Rieslings.
